

What is Death?

Death is the end of life.

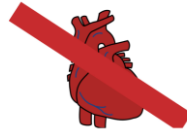

Everybody's life has a beginning, a middle and an end.

When a person dies, it means that their body stops working.

Their heart does not beat any more.

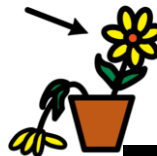

They do not breathe.

This means: They don't eat. They don't sleep. They don't talk.

We will never see them alive again.

It is ok to have questions about death.

